The Profitable and Golden Adventure to the Fortunate.

SET out by Thomas Neale, Esq; Groom-Porter to his Majesty, (pursuant to his Promise late published in Print) in which Fifty thousand Tickets were to be given out at half a Guiney per Ticket, amounting only to Twenty five thousand Guineas, and yet by the Method proposed, the Adventure to be drawn was to be Fifty thousand Guineas." The Drawing, tho' Published to begin on Tuesday the 24th of this March, 1695. in the Great Room at the Swan Tavern in Exchange-Alley, London, is put off till Wednesday the 25th Instant: But the Trustees will, on Tuesday, meet in that Place, where any Adventurer, that please, may come and see them begin to cut off Numbers, Prizes and Blanks, and put all things in a readiness for the Drawing, which will be certainly there the next day. And by this there will be (as is greatly desired) opportunity given of taking out Tickets, which are given out now very fast, till Tuesday night from any Receiver, and at the Swan-Tavern, where (as also at Garraway's Coffe-house) they will be to be had; and 'tis presumed great Numbers will be took out that day.

The Managers to see this Exactly Performed are most of them the same that took care of the last, viz.

Mr. Alderman Darwin, Mr. Sam. Shepheard, Mr. Nath. Herne, Mr. Rich. Chiswel, Mr. Edmd. Harris, Mr. Edw. Dorrel, Mr. Walter Overbury, Mr. Benj. Giles, Mr. Arthur Ingram, Mr. D. Foe, and Mr. Edw. Lawrence.

The Receivers answerable for the Money by them to be received are Mr. John Norton, Woolmanller; Mr. Nathaniel Green, Leicester-fields; Mr. Edward Wootton, Mr. John Pepys near Charing-cross; Mr. Jo. Fells; Mr. Jo. Eggs in the Strand; Captain Jenkins, Essex-street; Mr. Jo. Lund; Mr. Robert Poole, and Mr. Tho. Wooten; Mr. James Marmion, Fleet-street; Mr. Thomas Hickin, over against Grays-Inn-Gate, Holborn; Mr. James Hallet; Mr. Edmd. Harrison, Cheapside; Mr. Edward Pinfold, Lombard-street; Mr. Samuel Edwards, Cashier to the National Land-Bank, in Exchange-Alley; Mr. Tho. Leming, at Cowper's-Gate, next the Walks, Book-seller; Mr. Chaves, at the Chocolet-House; Palmal; and Mr. Do. Ofendo, at the Chocolet House by St. James's-Gate. And Mr. Richard Graber Bookseller in Bristol. At the Receivers may be had Proposals at large.

March the 23th, 1695. THO. NEALE.